

Gasoline Powered Backpack Sprayer

This portable sprayer is powered by a gasoline engine and designed for backpack carrying. It features a high-pressure pump and adjustable nozzle for efficient spraying of liquids in agricultural and industrial applications.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

High-Performance Backpack Sprayer

The FT-900 is a professional-grade, gasoline-powered backpack sprayer engineered for agricultural and industrial versatility. Its ergonomic design ensures comfort during extended operation, while the high-pressure pump system delivers consistent performance for tasks ranging from pest control to fertilization. Built for demanding environments, this unit offers the durability and efficiency required for large-scale liquid application.

Technical Specifications

Power Source	Gasoline Engine
Suitable Applications	Pest Control, Fertilization, Herbicides, Sanitation, Agricultural Use

Features

Key Features

- Ergonomic backpack design for comfort
- High-pressure pump system
- Adjustable nozzle for varied spray patterns
- Durable construction for long-lasting performance

Performance Highlights

900 FT

Model ID

Quality Standards

Quality & Standards

Japan Quality Standard • Industrial Grade