

Geotechnical Site Investigation

This service provides on-site geotechnical investigations. It assesses soil composition and stability to inform construction and engineering decisions.

Overview

Comprehensive Geotechnical Site Investigation

This geotechnical investigation service provides essential analysis for construction projects, focusing on soil properties and foundation preparation. By conducting detailed site assessments, we help ensure structural stability and long-term safety for your building developments. The process includes excavation analysis and testing to support informed engineering decisions.

Project Details

Operational Status

Active Construction Site

Project Type

Geotechnical Investigation

Key Activities

Soil Testing, Foundation Preparation, Excavation Analysis, Structural Stability Assessment