

Grain and Feed Hammer Mill

This machine crushes grains, straw, and minerals for animal feed production. It features a durable structure ensuring safe and reliable operation.

Overview

Versatile Feed Processing Solution

This hammer mill is designed for efficient crushing of diverse raw materials, including corn, wheat, soy, grains, straw, and various minerals. Its rational, durable structure ensures reliable performance and safe operation, making it an essential component for feed production lines. The machine offers high efficiency with low noise and consumption, providing an ideal solution for farms and agricultural businesses looking to optimize their feed processing capabilities.

Key Features

Operational Benefits

- High efficiency with low energy consumption
- Low noise operation
- Easy installation and convenient operation
- No fixed foundation required
- High adaptability for various raw materials

Suitable Materials

Corn, Wheat, Soy, Grains, Straw, Vines, Dry Potato, Minerals
