

Halogen Radiant Space Heater

This electric space heater uses halogen tubes to generate heat. It features multiple power settings and a tip-over switch for safety.

Product Overview

Efficient Radiant Heating Solution

The NSKT-120B is a portable halogen radiant space heater designed for reliable and localized warmth. Featuring a robust metal safety grill and multiple heat settings, it offers users precise control over their environment. Its lightweight design, complete with an integrated carrying handle and a stable circular base, ensures easy relocation and safe operation in various professional or residential settings.

Technical Specifications

Heating Technology	Halogen Radiant
Safety Features	Metal Safety Grill, Overheat Warning Label, Stable Circular Base

Design & Portability

Portability	Yes
Control Interface	Top-mounted buttons