

Handheld High-Temperature Torch

This high-temperature blow torch is designed for various metalworking and heating applications. It features a maximum temperature of 1850°C and is capable of rotating 360° for versatile use.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Professional High-Temperature Torch

This handheld high-temperature torch is designed for versatile metalworking and heating applications, including soldering, brazing, and heat shrinking. Available in two configurations, the series offers both manual and automatic ignition options to suit different operational needs. Engineered for durability and safety, the updated model features a 360-degree rotary capability for enhanced maneuverability during precise tasks.

Technical Specifications

Maximum Temperature

1850 °C

Max Temperature

Ignition Systems

- Manual ignition (HG-9)
- Automatic piezo ignition (HG-10)

Rotation

360° rotary capability (HG-10 model)

Compliance & Market

Popular Markets

Europe • South Africa

Certifications

CE Certified