

High-Intensity Strobe Warning Light

This high-intensity strobe warning light system features individual strobe units connected to a central control module. It is designed for automotive or emergency vehicle applications, providing a bright and attention-grabbing visual signal.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional High-Intensity Strobe System

This professional-grade strobe warning light system is engineered for demanding emergency and automotive applications requiring high-visibility signaling. The modular design features a central control unit connected to robust, weather-resistant strobe heads that deliver powerful, attention-grabbing illumination. Built for reliability and long-term performance, this system meets international quality management standards.

Certifications & Compliance

Quality Certifications

ISO 9001

Technical Features

Lighting Configuration

4 units

Strobe Units

Key Attributes

- Coiled filament illumination technology
- U-shaped transparent protective housing
- Central control module with status indicators
- White stepped-base mounting interface
- High-intensity intermittent signal output