

High-Resolution PC Camera

This PC camera is designed for clear and crisp video conferencing and recording. It features advanced image processing, automatic white balance, and low-light correction, and is compatible with Windows and macOS.

Product Overview

Professional High-Resolution PC Camera

This high-resolution PC camera is engineered for crystal-clear video conferencing and high-quality recording. It features advanced image processing capabilities, including automatic white balance and low-light correction, ensuring professional results in various lighting conditions. Designed for versatility, it is an ideal solution for online meetings, live streaming, and content creation.

Technical Specifications

Core Features

- Advanced image processing
- Automatic white balance
- Low-light correction
- High-resolution video output

System Compatibility

Windows, macOS

Applications

Primary Use Cases

Video Conferencing • Content Creation • Live Streaming