

Highway Construction Project

This project involves the construction of a multi-lane highway. It integrates infrastructure with agricultural fields and forest areas.

Project Overview

Sukkur-Multan Section

The Sukkur-Multan section of the Pakistan PKM project represents a significant infrastructure development. This multi-lane highway has been engineered to traverse diverse landscapes, integrating seamlessly with existing agricultural fields and forest areas. The project highlights advanced construction standards and large-scale infrastructure planning.

Project Details

Infrastructure Type

Highway • Construction Project • Infrastructure

Project Name

Pakistan PKM Project (Sukkur-Multan section)