

Household Water Purification Machine

This sleek water purification machine features a multi-stage filtration system and digital display with touch controls. Its compact design is suitable for countertop installation and provides purified water on demand.

Overview

Professional Household Filtration

This modern household water purification system is engineered to provide safe, clean water on demand. Designed with a focus on both functionality and aesthetic, it features a space-saving countertop form factor perfect for contemporary kitchens. The unit employs a robust multi-stage filtration process to effectively reduce common impurities, ensuring improved water quality and taste for your home.

Physical Dimensions

Unit Dimensions

480 mm
Height

145 mm
Width

370 mm
Depth

Technical Features

Filtration System	Multi-stage filtration
Control Interface	Digital Display, Touch Controls
Installation	Countertop