

Import and Export Agency Services

Agency services specialize in import and export processes for international engineering projects. They facilitate international trade and logistics.

Service Overview

Professional Import and Export Agency Services

This agency provides comprehensive import and export solutions tailored for international trade and logistics. Specializing in supporting foreign engineering contracting and complex infrastructure projects, the service facilitates seamless cross-border operations. By handling the intricacies of international supply chains, it ensures efficiency and compliance for global engineering initiatives.

Service Scope

Target Sectors

- Foreign Engineering Projects
- International Infrastructure
- General Import/Export

Primary Focus

Engineering Contracting, International Trade, Logistics Management