

Indoor Digital TV Antenna with VHF/UHF Reception

This indoor antenna is designed for receiving over-the-air digital TV broadcasts. It features extendable telescopic antennas for optimal signal reception and is compatible with a wide range of TVs and set-top boxes.

Overview

The ANT-222 features a compact, modern design suitable for any home or office environment.

High-Performance Indoor Digital Reception

This indoor digital TV antenna is engineered for superior over-the-air reception of both VHF and UHF signals. Featuring a modern 'wrist' design with a hidden UHF metal loop and retractable telescopic dipoles, it provides a sleek aesthetic while maximizing signal stability. It is an ideal solution for cord-cutters looking to access free local HD channels without monthly cable or satellite fees.
