

Industrial Control Switch with Metallic Mounting

This control switch is designed for industrial applications. It features a durable construction with a metallic mounting bracket and a black operating lever.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Industrial Control Selector Switch

The ZB2-BE101 is a robust and reliable selector switch engineered for demanding industrial control and signaling applications. It features a durable metallic mounting bracket and a precision-engineered black operating lever designed for frequent use. With its verified compliance to international electrical standards, this unit provides dependable performance in industrial control circuits.

Electrical Ratings

Performance Metrics

500 V

Rated Insulation Voltage (Ui)

10 A

Thermal Current (Ith)

400 V

Rated Operational Voltage

Technical Specifications

IP Protection Rating	IP40
Contact Type	NO (Normally Open) .3.4
Country of Origin	China

Compliance & Certification

International Standards	IEC60947-5-1, EN60947-1, CE
-------------------------	-----------------------------