

Infrared Remote Control for Satellite Receivers

This infrared remote control is designed for use with satellite receivers. It features a full array of buttons including power, mute, volume, channel selection, menu navigation, and a numeric keypad.

Product Overview

Professional Satellite Remote Control

This infrared remote control is engineered for precise management of satellite receivers. It provides full navigational control, including menu access, channel switching, volume adjustment, and dedicated media playback functions. The ergonomic layout features an intuitive keypad designed for professional environments and standard residential use.

Key Features

Functionality	Power Control, Menu Navigation, Volume Control, Channel Selection, EPG Support, Radio Mode, Favorite Channels
---------------	---

Technical Specifications

Keypad Features

- Numeric keypad (0-9)
- TV/SAT switch
- Dedicated EPG button
- Language and Subtitle support
- Playback controls (Pause/Sound)

Connectivity	Infrared (IR)
--------------	---------------