

Infrared Remote Control for TVs and DVD Players

This is a standard infrared remote control for consumer electronics. It is designed for use with televisions, DVD players, and other compatible devices.

Product Overview

Universal Infrared Remote Control

This standard infrared remote control is engineered for seamless operation of television sets and DVD players. It features a comprehensive button layout including power, input selection, menu navigation, and dedicated volume and channel controls. Its ergonomic design ensures ease of use for everyday consumer electronic management.

Technical Specifications

Communication Technology	Infrared (IR)
Supported Devices	Television, DVD Player

Control Features

Control Capabilities

- Power Toggle
- Input Source Selection
- Menu Navigation
- Volume Adjustment
- Channel Selection
- Numerical Keypad