

Infrared TV Remote Control

Infrared remote control unit designed for operating television sets. It features a full array of buttons for power, source selection, menu navigation, sound and display settings.

Overview

Ergonomic Infrared TV Remote Control

This standard infrared TV remote control offers comprehensive command over modern and classic television sets. Designed with an ergonomic profile for comfortable daily handling, it includes dedicated controls for volume, channel navigation, and system settings. The unit supports advanced features such as sleep timers, picture mode adjustments, and freeze frame capabilities for a versatile user experience.

Device Features

Primary Functions

- Power Control
- Source Selection
- Numeric Keypad
- Display Settings
- Volume and Channel Navigation
- Menu Access

Advanced Settings

Sleep Timer, Picture Mode, Sound Mode, Freeze Frame, CCD, Y/Cb/Cr Component Settings

Physical Properties

Interface Layout

Infrared Signal • Standard Layout • Intuitive Button Placement

Material and Design

Durable black plastic construction with an ergonomic form factor