

Infrared Wireless Conference System with Gooseneck Microphones

This infrared wireless conference system supports wireless communication between delegate units and a central control unit. Each unit includes a microphone, speaker, and user interface for managing participation and settings.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Professional Conference Audio Solution

The Infrared Wireless Conference System is a professional audio solution designed for meetings, conferences, and presentations. Utilizing advanced infrared technology, it ensures secure and interference-free wireless communication between delegate units and the central control unit. The system features a sleek, modern design with gooseneck microphones for optimal sound capture, making it ideal for boardrooms, conference halls, and government facilities.

System Features

Transmission Technology	Infrared (IR) Wireless
Core Capabilities	Speech Timer, Request-to-Speak, Voting, Interference-free Audio
Model	HT-8500M

Hardware Specifications

Delegate Unit Components

- Gooseneck Microphone
- Integrated Speaker
- Control Panel Interface
- Display Screen

Design

Sleek • Modern • Professional