

Insulated Closed End Crimp Terminals

These insulated closed end crimp terminals are designed for secure and reliable electrical connections. The terminals provide a protective barrier, preventing corrosion and ensuring long-lasting performance.

