

Interactive Information Display Terminal

This interactive terminal features a built-in screen. It is designed for displaying educational videos, telecommunications services and public announcements in educational or institutional settings.

Product Overview

Interactive Information Terminal

This interactive information display terminal is designed for public dissemination of media and essential service updates in institutional or educational environments. It serves as a central hub for educational content, telecommunications support, and community announcements. Built with a user-friendly interface, it provides easy access to digital services and public notices to keep users informed and connected.

Key Features

Supported Services

- Educational Video Streaming
- School Media Playback
- Telecommunications Service Access
- Free Calling Facilities
- MP3 Digital Downloads

Announcement Support

Yes

Deployment

Primary Use Cases

Educational Institutions, Public Information Centers, Community Hubs