

Interphone Pager System with Camera and Keypad

This interphone pager system provides secure communication and access control. It features a camera, speaker, microphone, and keypad, constructed from durable materials suitable for outdoor installation.

Overview

Secure Communication & Access Control

This modern interphone and pager system is engineered for reliable security and convenient access management. Featuring a high-resolution integrated camera, two-way audio communication, and a secure keypad, it provides comprehensive visual and audio verification for visitors. Built from durable materials, this unit is designed for robust outdoor installation in both residential and commercial environments.

Technical Specifications

Suitable Applications

- Residential Security
- Commercial Access Control

Installation

Outdoor

Key Features

Integrated Camera, Two-Way Audio, Keypad Entry, Outdoor Rated, Durable Construction

Interface

User-friendly keypad