

Interphone Paging System

Interphone paging systems provide efficient communication solutions. They are designed for quick and reliable messaging in various settings.

Product Overview

Interphone Paging System

The Interphone Paging System is designed for efficient communication and reliable performance in professional environments. This system facilitates clear, immediate messaging, ensuring seamless coordination across your facility. Built with robust components, it offers a dependable solution for paging needs in demanding operational settings.

Technical Specifications

Components

- Rivet Body (Shell)
- Mandrel

Fastener Type

Blind Rivet (Pop Rivet)

Installation

Single-sided access required; mandrel is pulled by tool to expand body and clamp materials.

Joint Quality

Secure, Permanent, High-strength