

Interphone Paging System with Accessories

Interphone and pager system designed for communication and security applications. It features multiple models and accessories suitable for various setups.

Overview

Professional Communication & Security Solution

This comprehensive interphone paging system is designed for robust communication and security applications in various professional environments. The kit includes a versatile array of interphone models and essential accessories, such as electric locks, to support integrated access control and paging setups. Its modular design allows for flexible installation, making it suitable for diverse security and communication infrastructure requirements.

System Components

Available Interphone Models

- KW-160M/C
- KW-4HPL/C
- KW-160
- KW-214
- KW-4MT

Compatible Accessories

- KW-624b
- KW-624BN
- KW-514
- KW-514N
- Electric Lock

Application

Primary Applications

Communication Systems, Security Access Control, Paging Systems