

J Chain Chaser Grapnel Hook

This J chain chaser grapnel hook is designed for secure and efficient chain engagement. Constructed from high-strength steel, it is suitable for anchor handling, mooring systems, and other heavy-duty lifting operations.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Permanent J chain chaser designed for reliable chain engagement in marine applications.

Permanent Chain Chaser Grapnel

The J Chain Chaser Grapnel Hook is a heavy-duty, four-fluke mooring tool designed for secure and efficient chain engagement in demanding marine environments. Engineered for durability, this permanent chaser is suitable for anchor handling, shipbuilding, and offshore platform operations. Each unit is built to withstand significant loads and is ABS approved, ensuring reliability and compliance with international maritime standards.

Technical Specifications

Available Capacities

- 110
- 125
- 150
- 200
- 250

Design Type

4-fluke grapnel

Certifications & Compliance

Certification

ABS Approved

Performance Data

Proof Load Test Result

1593 KN

Rated Proof Load