

Large-Scale Industrial Building Complex

This is a large-scale industrial building complex. It features a modular design with multiple rectangular structures and covers 43,736 square meters.

Overview

Large-Scale Industrial Complex

This large-scale industrial building complex represents a premier facility designed for high-capacity operations. Spanning a significant construction area, the site demonstrates advanced architectural planning and structural integrity. The complex has been recognized for its excellence in construction quality, having received a prestigious national award for engineering achievement.

Specifications

Awards & Recognition

Luban Prize • National High Quality Project

Total Construction Area	43736 sqm
Facility Type	Industrial Building Complex