

LED Emergency Light for Safety Applications

This emergency LED light is designed for security and safety during power outages. Its efficient LED technology provides consistent light output and long-lasting performance in various settings.

Product Overview

Reliable Safety Illumination

The XT-860L is a professional-grade emergency LED lighting solution engineered for high-stakes security and safety environments. It automatically provides consistent, bright illumination during power outages to ensure occupant safety and clear visibility. Featuring a durable construction and energy-efficient LED technology, this unit is built for long-lasting performance in a variety of demanding settings.

Performance Specifications

Key Features

- Durable construction
- High efficiency LED
- Automatic emergency activation

Lighting Source	LED
-----------------	-----

Application Suitability

Ideal Use Cases	Residential, Commercial Offices, Industrial Facilities
-----------------	--