

Lopping Shears for Branch Cutting

Lopping shears are designed for cutting thick branches. They typically feature long handles for increased leverage and durable blades for efficient cutting.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Versatile Lopping Shears for Professional Gardening

These lopping shears are designed for efficient branch cutting and pruning tasks in gardening and landscaping environments. The collection features a variety of handle designs, blade shapes, and cutting mechanisms to accommodate different branch sizes and user preferences. Constructed with durable metal blades and ergonomic grips, these tools are built to provide comfortable and reliable performance for both delicate stems and thicker branches.

Model Range

Available Model Numbers

- 38183
- 32137B
- 32192
- 32110
- 32326A
- 32326B
- 32114
- 32182
- 32140
- 32109
- 32118
- 32117
- 32143
- 31006
- 31201
- 31001
- 31202
- 31002
- 31303
- 31304
- 31100
- 31301
- 321248
- 32116
- 32124A
- 321240

Design & Construction

Handle Materials	Wooden Handles, Black Plastic Handles, Green Ergonomic Grips
Blade Material	Durable Metal