

Madass 125 Naked Bike Motorcycle

The Madass 125 is a naked bike motorcycle featuring a lightweight frame, single-cylinder engine, and minimalist design. It has a distinctive exposed frame, sporty suspension, and disc brakes for responsive stopping power.

Overview

Urban Mobility Redefined

The 125 Naked Bike is a lightweight motorcycle engineered for urban commuting and recreational riding. Featuring a distinctive minimalist exposed frame design, it offers a sporty and agile experience for riders. Equipped with a single-cylinder engine and responsive disc brakes, this bike combines style with practical performance.

Technical Specifications

Engine Type	Single-cylinder
Displacement	125 cc
Braking System	Disc Brakes

Design & Features

Design Style

Naked Bike • Minimalist • Exposed Frame

Primary Usage

- Urban Commuting
- Recreational Riding