

Marine Anchor for Boats

This high-strength anchor is designed for marine applications, featuring a robust shank and fluke construction for reliable holding power. It is constructed from durable materials to withstand harsh marine environments and provide secure, stable anchoring for boats and ships.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Marine Anchoring Solutions

Our marine anchors are engineered for reliability and durability in demanding maritime environments. We offer a comprehensive range of anchoring solutions, including ordinary and high-holding power designs suitable for various vessel sizes and seabed conditions. With a focus on quality assurance and efficient global logistics, we ensure your anchoring equipment arrives safely and on time.

Technical Specifications

Featured Specifications

6000 KG
Weight

90504
Model ID

Available Anchor Types

Hall, Spek, Stockless, AC-14, Danforth, Pool

Logistics & Terms

Packaging Methods

- Gunny bag with inside PVC bag and pallet
- Wooden case
- PP ton woven bag

Standard Delivery Time

30 days after order confirmation

Payment Terms

30% in advance, balance against copy of Bill of Lading