

Marine Electric Capstan Winch

This vertically mounted electric capstan winch has a cast steel wrapping head. It offers a pull force of 3 to 15T at the first layer and a speed of 20m/min.

Overview

Marine Electric Capstan Winch

This robust marine electric capstan winch is engineered for reliable performance in demanding maritime environments. Designed for versatility, it supports various ship applications including mooring and anchoring tasks. The unit offers customizable configurations to meet specific operational requirements while ensuring high-quality, efficient lifting and pulling capabilities.

Technical Specifications

Working Load Capacity

1 Ton

Minimum Load

20 Ton

Maximum Load

Normal Operating Speed

9-18 M/min

Available Drive Types

Hydraulic, Electric, Manual

Wire Rope Diameter

Customizable per requirement

Compliance & Quality

Certifications

ABS • DNV • BV • GL • LR • NK • KR • CCS

Key Features

- Easy installation
- Suitable for a variety of ships
- Special design options available for different clients
- Short delivery time for urgent orders