

Masonry Construction Twine

This mason twine provides a variety of colors for different construction and marking applications. Each spool contains durable, high-quality twine designed for strength and longevity.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Masonry Twine

This high-quality construction twine is specifically engineered for precision and durability in demanding job site environments. It offers excellent corrosion resistance and is easy to knot, making it a reliable tool for bricklaying, block work, and landscaping projects. Designed for longevity, this twine serves as an essential building marker line for ensuring accurate alignment and straight lines during construction.

Key Features

Features

- Corrosion resistant
- Easy to knot
- Durable construction
- High-visibility color options
- Convenient spool dispensing

Applications

Bricklaying, Landscaping, Building Marker Line, Construction Alignment