

Metalworking Belt Sander with Tilting Head

This metalworking belt sander operates at 2800rpm for high performance. It features a quick belt change system, a 100mm dust extraction outlet, and a tilting head.

Overview

High-Performance Metalworking Solution

This metalworking belt sander is a versatile machine engineered for efficient grinding, sanding, and finishing of metal surfaces. It features a robust construction and a powerful motor designed to handle demanding fabrication tasks in machine shops. With adjustable settings and a tilting head, this unit provides the precision and ergonomic control necessary for professional metalworking facilities.

Performance

Rotation Speed

2800 rpm
Speed

Speed Options

Single Speed • Duo Speed Optional

Design & Features

Head Configuration	Tilting head for adjustable working height
Belt System	Quick change system with swallow tail structure for tracking stability
Safety Features	Overload Protection

Infrastructure

Included Accessories

- Floor Stand

Dust Extraction Outlet	100 mm
------------------------	--------