

Mobile Medical Isolation Cabin

This mobile medical isolation cabin is designed for rapid deployment in response to public health emergencies. The self-contained unit features climate control, sealed windows, and robust construction for safe and effective patient isolation.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Rapid Deployment Medical Isolation Cabin

This self-contained isolation unit is engineered for rapid deployment during public health emergencies, providing a safe and hygienic environment for patient care. It features climate control, integrated sanitary facilities, and a fully furnished interior for immediate operational use. The modular design ensures it can be easily transported and established in diverse locations as required.

Interior Features

Furnishings and Equipment

- Adjustable hospital bed
- Bedside table
- Fold-away table
- Integrated electrical outlets
- Climate control (Air conditioning)
- Sanitizable wall surfaces

Sanitary Facilities

Integrated Bathroom Unit

- Portable toilet with lid
- Sink with hinged cover
- Integrated storage cabinet
- Wood-look laminate flooring

Design Specifications

Core Design Specs

Rapid Deployment, Climate Controlled, Sealed Windows, Easy-Sanitize Surfaces