

Mobile Phone Integrated Torch

This telelight combines a mobile phone and a torch into one device. Its compact design makes it a portable lighting solution.

Product Overview

Innovative Mobile Illumination

The Telelight is a compact, innovative design that integrates a powerful torch directly onto your mobile device. Featuring two bright LEDs, it provides essential illumination for walking at night, finding keys, or locating locks in the dark. Its small, exquisite form factor ensures it remains unobtrusive while offering a long-lasting, reliable light source.
