

Modular Shelving Hardware Accessories

This hardware accessory set is designed for modular shelving systems and small construction projects. The components facilitate easy assembly and customization for DIY projects and organizing small items.

Product Overview

Modular Shelving Hardware Accessories

This collection of precision-cut hardware accessories is engineered for modular shelving systems and small-scale construction projects. The set features a versatile array of slotted panels, corner supports, and connecting elements designed for seamless assembly and customization. Crafted from high-density composite materials with a uniform finish, these components provide a reliable solution for organizing small items and optimizing storage configurations.

Technical Specifications

Included Components

- Slotted panels
- Corner supports
- Connecting elements

Material Composition	Composite wood / Dense fiberboard
Surface Finish	Uniform protective coating

Application & Use

Assembly Style

Easy Assembly • Customizable

Primary Application	Modular Shelving, Small-scale Construction, DIY Projects, Organization
---------------------	--