

Mortise Lock Body

Stainless steel lock body mechanism designed for mortise lock systems. It features a durable construction with a rectangular faceplate and integrated latch and deadbolt.

Product Overview

Professional Mortise Lock Mechanism

This expert-quality mortise lock body is engineered for durability and reliable security in professional door installations. Featuring a high-grade stainless steel faceplate and a robust zinc bolt, this mechanism ensures long-term operational integrity. It is designed to accommodate standard cylinder locks, making it a versatile choice for various commercial and residential door systems.

Technical Specifications

Quality Standard

Expert Quality

Model Identifier

7255A-1

Faceplate Material

Stainless Steel

Bolt Material

Zinc

Core Features

Stainless Steel Panel, Zinc Deadbolt, Mortise Design, Standard Cylinder Ready