

Motorcycle Brake Component

This is a brake component designed for motorcycles. It provides essential stopping power and contributes to overall rider safety.

Overview

Reliable Utility Transport

This motorcycle is engineered for versatile utility and transport, making it an ideal choice for both urban commuting and rural environments. It features a robust, air-cooled engine and a standard suspension system designed for consistent performance. With its distinctive red fairing and functional chrome accents, this model balances durability with practical design for daily use.

Technical Specifications

Engine Type	Air-cooled
Model Designation	150-18

Design & Aesthetics

Color Scheme	Red • Chrome • Black
Wheel Design	Five-spoke chrome wheels

Features

Utility Features

- Chrome luggage rack
- Protective bars
- Standard suspension system
- Single headlight with fairing