

Motorcycle Control Cable

This motorcycle control cable is designed to transmit force in throttle, clutch, or brake systems. It features a flexible outer casing with an inner steel cable and end fittings for secure attachment.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

High-Performance Control Cables

These motorcycle control cables are engineered for smooth operation and long-lasting durability. Designed to serve as essential throttle, clutch, or brake components, they feature flexible outer casings and high-strength inner steel wires. Available in multiple configurations including black and white housing options, these cables are compatible with a wide range of motorcycle models across global markets.

Technical Specifications

Available Housing Colors

Black • White

Reference Part Numbers

- G4170020
- BA191051
- BA11112

Compatible Systems

Throttle, Clutch, Brake

Market Availability

Primary Export Regions

- South America (Colombia, Peru, Brazil, Argentina, Bolivia, Guatemala, Uruguay, Paraguay)
- India
- Bangladesh
- Algeria
- Iran