

Motorcycle Control Panel with Indicator Lights

This electronic device features multiple buttons and indicator lights. It is used for controlling or monitoring various functions within a motorcycle.

Overview

Advanced Vehicle Control Interface

This motorcycle control panel is designed to provide seamless operation of critical electronic systems. Featuring a durable white casing with a high-contrast black and blue control interface, it includes intuitive buttons and integrated indicator lights for real-time status monitoring. The unit also incorporates dual speaker grills, making it a versatile solution for vehicle communication and control needs.

Technical Details

Interface Features

- Multi-button control array
- Integrated indicator lights
- Dual speaker grills

Model Number

WS-301

Design & Build

Casing Color

White

Panel Colors

Black, Blue