

Motorcycle Front Fork Shock Absorbers

High-performance motorcycle front fork shock absorbers enhance handling and ride comfort. These shock absorbers feature durable construction with a gold-anodized outer tube, silver lower section, and polished upper tube.

Product Overview

High-Performance Suspension Solution

These motorcycle front fork shock absorbers are engineered to provide superior handling and enhanced ride comfort. Featuring a robust construction with a premium gold-anodized finish, they combine aesthetic appeal with functional durability. Designed for those seeking an upgrade in suspension performance, these units are suitable for various motorcycle applications requiring precision control.

Technical Specifications

Key Features

- Durable construction
- Gold-anodized outer tube
- Polished upper tube
- Integrated mounting points

Finish

Gold-Anodized, Polished, Silver Lower Section

Performance Metrics

Performance Benefits

1 Enhanced

Handling

1 Improved

Ride Comfort