

Motorcycle Tail Light Assembly

This is a motorcycle tail light assembly with a red lens and black housing. It is designed for mounting and provides illumination for braking and signaling.

TL063

Product Overview

Motorcycle Tail Light Assembly

This motorcycle tail light assembly is designed for reliable braking and signaling performance. Featuring a durable black housing with a distinct red lens and a clear upper section, it integrates seamlessly into standard motorcycle electrical systems. The kit includes all necessary mounting hardware and wiring, ensuring a straightforward installation process for professional maintenance or upgrades.

Technical Details

Model Number	TL063
Certifications	CCC

Design & Construction

Lens Configuration

- Red main lens
- Clear upper section

Housing Color	Black
---------------	-------

Installation

Included Components

- Tail light assembly
- Mounting hardware
- Wiring harness