

Multi-Functional Card Reader with Keypad and Display

This multi-functional card reader features a keypad, display screen, and card scanning area. It supports various card types and functionalities for data entry, verification, or access control.

Overview

Professional Multi-Functional Card Reader

The DM 520 is a robust, multi-functional card reader designed for commercial environments requiring secure data management and efficient card-based transactions. Featuring an integrated numerical keypad and a clear display screen, this device streamlines manual input and verification processes. It is an ideal solution for access control, data entry, and secure authentication workflows in professional settings.

Device Features

Interface Components

- Numerical Keypad
- Display Screen
- Card Scanning Area

Model Identifier	DM 520
Common Applications	Access Control, Data Entry, Verification, Secure Transactions