

Multi-Outlet Power Strip with Individual Switches

This versatile power strip features multiple universal power sockets, each equipped with individual switches for energy conservation. Designed to handle a maximum power of 2500W, it ensures safe and efficient power distribution for various electronic devices.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Versatile Power Distribution Solution

This multi-outlet power strip is engineered for efficiency and safety, featuring individual switches for each socket to help conserve energy. Constructed from durable ABS and copper materials, it supports a maximum power load of 2500W, making it suitable for a wide range of electronic devices. With integrated surge and overload protection, this unit provides a reliable and secure power management solution for home, office, and professional environments.

Electrical Specifications

Maximum Power

2500 W

Maximum Power

Voltage Range

110-250V

Current Rating

10 A

Design & Build

Cable Length Options

- 3m
- 5m
- Custom lengths available

Materials

ABS, Copper

Features & Safety

Safety Features

Independent Switches • Overload Protection • Surge Protection

Compliance & Services

Service Options

- OEM Accepted
- ODM Accepted

Certifications

TIS, CE, CCC

Warranty

2 Years