

Off-Road Rally Motorcycle with Camouflage Design

This off-road motorcycle is designed for rally racing and adventurous riding. Its camouflage-themed body is equipped with knobby tires and a robust suspension system.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Built for Endurance and Performance

The k20 RALLY is a high-performance off-road motorcycle engineered specifically for rally racing and adventurous terrain exploration. Featuring a distinctive camouflage design, this machine combines a robust suspension system with a powerful engine to handle the most demanding off-road conditions. With specialized rally equipment, including a navigation tower and long-range fuel tank, it offers the reliability and agility required for remote landscape navigation.

Technical Specifications

Engine Displacement

250 cc

Displacement

Terrain Suitability

Off-Road, Rally Racing, Adventure Riding, Remote Landscapes

Design & Build

Key Design Features

- Camouflage-themed bodywork
- Knobby high-traction tires
- High-mounted exhaust system
- Protective windscreen
- Integrated navigation tower

Lighting & Visibility

Front fairing with integrated headlights for enhanced visibility