

One-Piece Welded Putty Knife

This putty knife features a one-piece welded design for enhanced durability. Its polished metal blade and ergonomic handle make it suitable for spreading and scraping applications.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Grade One-Piece Putty Knife

This high-quality putty knife features a seamless, one-piece welded design, providing exceptional durability and preventing material buildup during use. Constructed from #420 stainless steel, the tool offers a perfect balance of flexibility and rigidity for precise application. Its ergonomic handle and integrated hanging hole make it a versatile, convenient choice for professional patching, scraping, and smoothing tasks.

Technical Specifications

Material Composition	#420 Stainless-steel
Construction	One-piece welded

Key Features

Attributes	Stainless Steel, Ergonomic Grip, Seamless Design, Hanging Hole, Corrosion Resistant
------------	---

Applications

Common Applications

- Patching surfaces
- Scraping compounds
- Spreading fillers
- Smoothing applications