

Open Refrigerated Display Showcase

This open refrigerated display showcase is designed for optimal product visibility and accessibility. It features a multi-tiered display area with a stainless steel frame and a perforated metal back panel for efficient airflow.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Designed for Retail Excellence

This open-type refrigerated display showcase is engineered for high-traffic retail environments, including bakeries, delis, and supermarkets. Its open-window design ensures maximum accessibility for customers while the 360-degree viewing angle highlights products effectively. Built with professional-grade refrigeration components, this unit offers reliable performance for perishable goods.

Design & Features

Key Features

- Open window design for easy access
- 360° product visibility
- Ventilated cooling system
- Multi-tiered display area
- Marble-patterned exterior finish
- Caster wheels for mobility

Materials

Stainless Steel, Glass, Perforated Metal

Performance Metrics

Performance Highlights

360 degrees

Viewing Angle

Application

Best For

Cakes Shops • Supermarkets • Delis • Bakeries