

Passenger Train Car

This passenger train car is designed for transporting people. It features a white exterior with blue accents, multiple windows, and a door with steps.

Overview

Passenger Transport Solution

This passenger train car is designed for efficient land-based transportation, featuring a durable exterior with high-visibility windows and integrated coupling mechanisms. Its clean, professional design includes functional entry doors with steps, ensuring accessibility and ease of use for transit operations. This unit is suitable for integration into existing rail networks, offering a reliable solution for passenger mobility.

Design & Exterior

Access Features

- Integrated entry door
- Step access
- Coupling mechanisms

Exterior Color Scheme	White, Blue Accents
Window Configuration	Yes