

Plant-Wide Chemical Processing Network

Plant-wide managed network utilizes TCP/IP standards over Ethernet for chemical processing. The distributed control system connects operating stations to chemical processing equipment.

