

Portable Plasma Display Traffic Barrier

This portable traffic barrier enhances road safety with its bright plasma display for messages and alerts. Its durable build and stable base ensure reliable performance in various conditions.

Product Overview

Portable Plasma Display Traffic Barrier

This portable plasma display traffic safety barrier is an advanced warning system engineered to significantly enhance road safety. Featuring a high-visibility plasma display, it is capable of broadcasting scrolling messages and critical alerts, ensuring reliability even in challenging weather conditions. The unit is built with durable materials and a stable base for consistent performance, making it an essential tool for traffic management and public security operations.

Technical Specifications

Display Capabilities

- Front display: Scrolling text capability
- Back display: Fixed 'Public Security' messaging in blue characters

Visibility Features

High-visibility plasma display, Red and white striped poles, All-weather performance

Power and Construction

Structural Design

Portable • Durable Construction • Stable Base

Power Supply

External power cord