

Portable Pocket Projector

This compact projector is designed for portability and convenience. It allows users to display content from various devices in different environments.

Overview

Compact Projection Solution

The ESF201 is a highly portable pocket projector designed for professionals and individuals who need reliable display capabilities on the move. Its compact form factor ensures easy transportation and rapid setup in diverse environments, from boardrooms to casual settings. Equipped with essential connectivity ports and tripod compatibility, this device offers a versatile solution for projecting content from various external sources.

Technical Specifications

Model Number	ESF201
Design Features	Portable, Compact, Tripod Compatible

Connectivity & Interface

Connectivity Ports	Yes
--------------------	-----