

Portable Wireless PA Amplifier

This portable wireless amplifier is designed for versatile audio amplification needs. It has multiple input channels and a built-in wireless receiver for seamless connectivity with wireless microphones.

Product Overview

Professional Versatility

The SA-2200 is a professional-grade portable wireless amplifier engineered for high-performance audio needs. Designed for seamless portability and durability, this system is ideal for public address, presentations, and live performances. It offers advanced connectivity with built-in wireless receivers and flexible input channels to ensure clear, high-quality sound in any environment.

Technical Specifications

Audio Controls

- Individual gain controls
- Master volume control
- Equalization adjustments

System Indicators

LED signal levels • System status indicators

Input Channels

Microphone input, Line input, Wireless

Application Suitability

Primary Applications

- Public address systems
- Professional presentations
- Live performances