

Power Bridge Module

This is a power bridge module used in electrical applications. It is designed with a dark-colored enclosure and features front-panel indicators.

Overview

Power Bridge Module

This power bridge module is designed for reliable power surge suppression in industrial electronic systems. It features a robust, dark-colored enclosure suitable for professional integration. The front panel includes clear indicators to assist with monitoring and operational status.

Technical Specifications

Function	Power Surge Suppressor
Key Features	Surge Suppression, Front-panel Indicators, Industrial Design